SPRING/SUMMER

How To Find One of A Kind Pieces

As much as I love shopping online and at big box retailers, it's always nice to support local craftsmen and the community. Jewelry and home goods have always been something I enjoy picking up on a more local level and am so excited because the One of a Kind Show is returning to Chicago this Spring!

I attended last year and usually try to make it to all the local artisan festivals during the summer to stock up on fun pieces. Candles, home goods and jewelry are probably my top wants when I attend, but last year I found some amazing coffee mugs that we use constantly now too.

As you have probably seen before, I wear a ton of jewelry by a local designer I love - Michelle Starbuck. She has really opened my eyes to so many new artisans and I love finding those fun and unique pieces. I just came across these amazing earrings from Anne Marie Chagnon and instantly fell in love. I have been pairing them with everything from tee's for workdays to dresses on the weekends. They are simple and not too overwhelming but the tassels are so fun!

The show is also a great time to discover new brands and products you may have never tried before. Last year, I picked up a tobacco scented candle, which I would have never normally thought sounded appealing! To my surprise, I instantly became obsessed and so did most of my friends that came over while it was burning! If you haven't tried it—I highly suggest it! Since I loved that earthy scent I recently grabbed these Chandler Candles in Lavender and Lime and Thai Basil and Cucumber and have fallen equally in love.

Another fun vendor that will be there this year that you should check out is Scratch Goods. They actually offer product and services in their store on Damen Ave. I have stopped in before to grab face masks and this same lip butter! They make the best presents and I definitely recommend giving them to friends!

There are so many cool artists to explore and I highly recommend stopping by the One of a Kind Show to look around! I will be there throughout the weekend, so let me know if you plan on swinging by! I'm also really excited because I teamed up with the One of a Kind Show to give away a pair of tickets, a tote bag and a gift card to one lucky reader! This is like the ultimate fun pack for the weekend and you can find something you love with the gift card! Just make sure to leave a comment below on why you would like to attend plus make sure you are following my Instagram account! Plus, if you don't win those, you can always use this code for $2 off your ticket too!

Good luck to you all and hope to see you there!
