

DO IT NOW

HOLIDAY

You won't have to camp out overnight to get first dibs on interesting holiday gifts at the One of a Kind Show and Sale. Handmade ceramics, jewelry, paintings, sculpture, furniture, clothing and more by artists from all over the world are on sale.

Why go: You slept through Black Friday, watched football on Small Business Saturday and actually worked during Cyber Monday.

Reconsider: Best Buy and Target have everything you need for the holidays.

Details: Thursday through Dec. 9 at Merchandise Mart, 222 W. Merchandise Mart Plaza; $12, $9 for seniors; oneofakindshowchicago.com

MUSIC

R&B artists Miguel and Elle Varner are on the beginning chapters of what will presumably be successful music careers, so they are far from opening acts for Trey Songz's "Chapter V" tour. Varner, Soul Train award winner for best new artist, wowed TV viewers on the show during a performance of "Refill." And Miguel's latest, "Kaleidoscope Dream," touches on many styles of R&B, with the singer's hand as writer and/or producer on every track.

Why go: Trey Songz has mastered R. Kelly's bump-and-grind R&B and put a pop spin on it.

Reconsider: You'd rather hear the hooks Songz has performed on the songs of various rappers more than a whole show of his music.

Details: 8 p.m. Saturday at Arie Crown Theater, McCormick Place, 2301 S. Lake Shore Drive; $48-$103; 800-745-3000, ticketmaster.com
