Countdown to Christmas: 25 ways to celebrate the holidays Chicago-style

One of a Kind on your mind

Doesn't matter if you're a foodie, a minimalist, a health nut or a collector of unique jewelry — all can be found at Merchandise Mart's annual One of a Kind Holiday Show. Nineteen years and counting, the show brings 650 artisans from around the world to sell their unique/handmade wares to Chicagoland shoppers. And when you're not being a productive consumer or gift buyer, take in a fashion show or listen to live music while indulging in some great foodstuffs.
