One of a Kind Show & Sale Chicago is an exciting and fun filled trade fair for holiday shoppers in the United States. This One of a Kind Show Chicago event hosts more than 600 talented artists from different parts of the country displaying a wide variety of innovative gift items for visitors to browse and select from. It also presents attendees with the opportunity to attend fashion shows, participate in workshops and dine in gourmet food joints for three well defined event days. Visitors can also interact with famous artists and learn more about the way they work and what inspires them to create such wonderful pieces of art. Exhibitors can benefit from the marketing and networking opportunities the show provides and generate sales leads instantly.
